FROM
100 MILLION B.C.

Interior Art by Netho Diaz, Vincenzo Federici, and Jordi Escuin
Box Art by Alex Horley | Game Design by Kevin Wilson

Your team of intrepid adventurers has embarked on history's first time-travelling expedition, only for the Professor's time machine to malfunction, crashing into the lip of an active volcano and stranding you 100 million years in the past! Re-assemble your time machine without altering the past or causing paradoxes. This co-operative big box adventure game is designed by Kevin Wilson (Descent, Arkham Horror and TMNT: Shadows of the Past.) for 1-6 adventurous gamers.

Explore volcanoes, jungles, and pre-historic swamps while searching for valuable technology and avoiding rampaging T-Rexes and Velociraptors. Return wayward historical figures like Abraham Lincoln and Teddy Roosevelt, who've been pulled into the past by rippling time paradoxes, all while racing against a volcano that's about to explode and obliterate your entire team!
