Short Synopsis

Everything has led to this moment. Titans have broken through Wall Maria and are heading to the supply depot in the Trost District. If the depot falls, all the resources needed to fight the Titans will be destroyed. If that happens the last few survivors are sure to lose all hope. So it's up to you and your team to fend off and kill the Titans before they can reach the depot! Are you ready to take a stand and save humanity?

Play as your favorite Attack on Titan character, or as the Titan itself. Protect yourself and the castle walls to save the day. Positioning is key. The Titan and the castle walls create a vertical playing field, so move your character up and down as needed to avoid attacks, or strategically position yourself to land a devastating blow. Your goal is to weaken the Titan so that it can be killed.

But be warned - the Titan has many tricks up its sleeve, so stay alert!

One Sentence Summary:
