

GOBLINS

Goblins it's a new incredible funny games in a perfect comic fantasy style. Players can start to play very fast and create the most incredible situations just starting the game. The coins combat system creates a great level of interactivity between players trying to launch them around the table. Players will guide their army against the human forces to have the power on the world, but, of course... can you imagine to drive an horde of goblins around the world?

To win the game, players must destroy everything their army will find conquering the most number of Terrain cards. The particular note it's every goblin can win a battle just fighting alone against an army of thousands of enemies. Goblins power!!!
