

Fairy Prank

Shake, Listen, & Guess!

Disturbed by a rustling noise, you wake up at midnight, only to discover a tiny creature putting something from your desk into a treasure box.

“Oh! You caught me!” said the tiny creature, “do you want your stuff back? Tell me what is missing and I’ll give it back.”

Taking the role of the little fairy, one player will remove items from the treasure box and then the other players each shake the box and guess what is missing by listening to the sounds. After several rounds, the player who correctly guesses the same item three times or six different items at least once is the winner!
